

Peter Pan

by J.M. Barrie

J.M. Barrie's enchanting story follows the Darling children to Neverland, a magical island where a boy who never grows up battles the villainous Captain Hook in thrilling adventures.

Rank #5

Elite 10

Power Words

#	WORD	DEFINITION
1	boastfully	adv. 1 inclined to brag; 2 exhibiting selfimportance "Peter crowed boastfully above the rooftops, certain that no boy in all of Neverland could match him."
1	captivate	v. to attract and hold someone's attention. "Peter could captivate any child with a single story, making even the most frightened forget their fears."
1	defiant	adj. showing resistance or disobedience. "Peter stood defiant at the prow, arms folded, daring Hook to come one step closer to his friends."
1	disdainful	adj. feeling or showing scorn contempt or aloofness. "Peter was utterly disdainful of growing up, dismissing it as the dullest thing he had ever heard of."
1	disenchant	v. to free from enchantment or illusion. "Nothing could disenchant Peter; the very idea of ordinary life made him crow with scornful laughter."
1	exultant	adj. jubilant; filled with joy "Peter felt exultant as he soared above the clouds, leaving the nursery window far behind."
1	illuminated	v. made something visible by shining light on it. "Tinker Bell's glow illuminated the darkened cavern just enough for the children to find their footing."
1	imperious	adj. having or showing the arrogant attitude of someone who gives orders and expects to be obeyed; commanding. "Hook's imperious gaze swept the deck, daring any pirate to question the order he had just given."
1	menacingly	adv. in a way that threatens harm or danger. "Hook advanced menacingly across the plank, his iron claw gleaming in the cold moonlight."
1	rapturously	adv. in a way that shows great joy or delight. "The children listened rapturously as Wendy began another tale of knights, mermaids, and forgotten lands."
1	relentless	adj. showing no signs of stopping or lessening. "The ticking crocodile was relentless in its pursuit, trailing Hook across every corner of Neverland."
1	swagger	v. to walk or behave in a confident way. "Hook would swagger along the gangplank each morning, reminding every pirate who commanded the vessel."
1	treacherous	adj. likely to betray trust or confidence; dangerous and unpredictable. "The treacherous lagoon glittered beautifully by day, yet claimed many a careless swimmer after dark."
1	unforgiving	adj. not willing to forgive or excuse mistakes. "Neverland was an unforgiving place after dark, where even the bravest lost boys kept very still."
1	wistfully	adv. in a way that shows sad longing. "Wendy gazed wistfully from the window, half hoping Peter might reappear on the moonlit sill."