

The Jungle Book

by Rudyard Kipling

Rudyard Kipling's stories follow Mowgli, a boy raised by wolves in the Indian jungle, alongside memorable animal characters like Baloo the bear and the fearsome tiger Shere Khan.

Rank #10

Elite 10

Power Words

#	WORD	DEFINITION
1	cunning	adj. having skill in achieving goals by trickery. "Mowgli was cunning enough to use the Red Flower against the tiger before the Pack could intervene."
1	disciplined	adj. showing control over one's behavior and actions. "The wolf pack remained disciplined under Akela's leadership, following the Law even when the hunt went badly."
1	ferocious	adj. fierce and violent. "The dholes were ferocious fighters, but they had never faced a pack that hunted alongside a man-cub."
1	gravely	adv. in a serious or solemn manner. "Bagheera spoke gravely of the Red Flower, warning Mowgli that fire was a tool no jungle beast could master."
1	imperiously	adv. in a way that shows authority or power. "Shere Khan spoke imperiously at the Council Rock, expecting every wolf to bow before his striped authority."
1	instinctive	adj. relating to or prompted by instinct; automatic or unthinking behavior. "Mowgli's instinctive crouch at the sound of a twig snapping was something no man had ever taught him."
1	mesmerize	v. to hold someone's attention completely. "Kaa could mesmerize his prey with slow, hypnotic coils, drawing the unwary closer with every deliberate movement."
1	obedient	adj. doing what you are told to do. "Mowgli was obedient to the Law of the Jungle in ways that no man-cub had ever been before."
1	predatory	adj. relating to animals that hunt other animals for food. "There was a predatory grace in the way Shere Khan limped forward, lame paw notwithstanding, toward the Council fire."
1	reverently	adv. in a way that shows deep respect. "The younger wolves listened reverently as Baloo recited the Master Words of the jungle creatures one by one."
1	sovereign	n. a supreme ruler or monarch. "Shere Khan moved through the undergrowth as sovereign and unchallenged as any creature the jungle had ever known."
1	stealthily	adj. done or acting in a secretive or covert way; sneaky; furtive "Bagheera moved stealthily through the tall grass, his black coat invisible against the shadows of the night hunt."
1	territorial	adj. relating to a specific area or region. "The wolves grew territorial when strange packs approached the den, and Akela's howl silenced every challenger."
1	unrelenting	adj. not yielding or giving up. it continues without stopping. "The jungle was unrelenting in its demands, testing every creature daily with heat, hunger, and hidden danger."
1	venomous	adj. capable of injecting venom to harm others. "Kaa's venomous reputation kept even the bravest animals at a respectful distance in the Cold Lairs."